

FREEGROUNDS INFANT SCHOOL EYFS

Week Beginning: Monday 13th July 2026

Key Messages:

As we move into the second half of summer term and the weather gets hotter, please make sure your child has applied sun-cream and brings a hat and water.

Library books

All library books have been collected in and your child will not receive one until they return in September. If you know you still have one at home, please return it to school. Thank you.

❀ Talent Week ❀

You will be notified if your child is selected as the class talent representative.

Each class winner will be performing to the rest of the school on the following days:

Monday 13th - Red Class

Tuesday 14th – Blue Class

Wednesday 15th -Class

Open Classroom

On Thursday 16th July we will have an open classroom from 3:15pm – 4:30pm. We invite you to come in and look at your child's exhibition creation and their learning journals. We look forward to seeing you!

Maths Activities:

Continuous learning that you can do at home:

Continue to encourage your child to count forwards and backwards in ones up to 20. Encourage your child to order, recognise and write the numbers up to 20. Practise spotting 2D and 3D shapes in the environment or using position and direction words as part of play.

Focus of the week:

This week we will be learning about time. The children will explore a range of activities focussing on days of the week, months of the year, parts of the day, units of time and reading O' Clock on an analogue clock.

English Activities:

Phonics Focus:

To support the children in phonics they are working in small targeted groups with children that are learning the same sounds and phonological skills.

Focus of the week:

This week the children will be reflecting on their first year of school and creating a memory book of their favourite parts.

Home Learning:

Before the end of term, reading books will also be collected in, in preparation for the new academic year. Please continue to read at home or by visiting the library. Hedge End library came into school to tell the children about the Summer Reading Challenge and many of them were excited to get involved.

Thank you for your continued support,
The EYFS Team

Article 31 is about your right to relax and play. We hope you have a lovely weekend!
